Kim Schuette begins her second season back at Eastern Illinois as the head softball coach. Last season, she rejoined the staff and led the Panthers to a 28-21 season. Schuette led EIU to a fourth place finish in the OVC and guided the Panthers to their tenth straight post-season appearance.

Schuette was the Panthers head coach from 2006-13 winning 232 games including 122 OVC contests. She was named the OVC Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2013 as the Panthers won conference regular season titles. During her time at EIU the Panthers finished in the upper division of the OVC race in six out of eight seasons making the conference tournament all but one year. She coached twenty All-OVC selections including OVC Pitchers of the Year Amber May (2011) and Hanna Mennenga (2013).

Following her eight seasons at EIU Schuette has posted an 85-81-1 record during her tenure at Purdue, including five wins over top 25 opponents. Her student-athletes were honored with nine All-Mideast Region, seven All-Big Ten, two Academic All-America, four Academic All-District and 34 Academic All-Big Ten accolades. Two of her players went on to play in the National Pro Fastpitch League.

Purdue finished sixth in the Big Ten Conference in 2014 and twice advanced to the conference tournament quarterfinals.

On March 5, 2016, Schuette earned her 300th Division I victory as Purdue defeated the College of Charleston.

A former pitcher at Eastern Illinois, she ended her career playing at Indiana State, where she was a two-time Academic All-American and All-Missouri Valley Conference selection as a senior.

Schuette graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in physical education at Indiana State in 2001 and received a master's degree in kinesiology and societal studies (sports management) from San Jose State in 2002.

Schuette was the head coach at Quincy University in 2005 and an assistant coach at San Jose State from 2001 to 2004. Schuette and her husband Jason have two children.
